

WEATHER FORECAST.
Fair and continued cool to-day; to-morrow fair, with slowly rising temperature. Highest temperature yesterday, 60; lowest, 48. Detailed weather reports will be found on Editorial page.

VOL. LXXXV.—NO. 37.—DAILY. NEW YORK, WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 6, 1920.

HOOVER PLEDGES HARDY SUPPORT; TURNS ON WILSON

Will Indict Administration for Incompetence and Blundering.
SPEAKS ON SATURDAY
Chairman Hays Forecasts Only Oklahoma and South for Cox.
SEES SENATE REPUBLICAN

Nominee Starts To-day for Des Moines for Address on the Covenant.

By a Staff Correspondent of THE HERALD.
MARIETTA, Ohio, Oct. 5.—Coincidentally with the receipt of a telegram from Senator Borah to-day, in which that forceful man from Idaho announced that he would continue to talk for Harding and against the league, the Republican nominee got word that Herbert C. Hoover is ready to jump into the fight, and that he will deliver a blast against the Wilson Administration in Indianapolis next Saturday night that will be heard all over the country.

The news about Mr. Hoover is almost the most interesting flash of the week, for the word comes straight that the former Food Administrator not only will indict the Wilson Administration for general incompetence and blundering, but that he will set himself against the acceptance of the League of Nations in the form that has been proposed. In California and elsewhere many persons intensely friendly to Hoover have been waiting for some pronouncement from him, especially as regards the league. There is good reason to believe that Hoover will line up squarely with Harding in the refusal to countenance a proposition which, in several articles, men-aces the safety of the United States.

Mr. Hoover's Republicanism.
The third item of special interest is Mr. Hays' prediction as to the result. The lively and always cheerful National Chairman visited Senator Harding and brought a bag full of prophecies. He is serious about them and says they are good basis for betting. To begin with, he seems devotedly to believe that James M. Cox will not carry a State outside of the solid South and Oklahoma, twelve. He seems just as earnestly to believe that the Republican will make a large gain in the United States Senate, Maryland and Kentucky. He figures, and declares, that both for Harding and for the Republican Senate candidates, and to these he adds Colorado, California, Arizona, South Dakota and several other States in which there are Senate electors.

It's going to be a landslide," said Mr. Hays.
The Republicans have shown full readiness to meet any issues presented. When the Democrats first concentrated upon the league covenant without the dotting of an 'i' or the crossing of a 't' we met them squarely. When through national and local Congressmen, a conference with their candidates, we pronounced the covenant only a "secondary issue" after all, we acquiesced. When the candidates reversed their National Chairmanship, we changed our position. When the candidates reversed their National Chairmanship, we changed our position.

Mr. Bryan vs. Wilson.
The President said in his statement "Money." There is nothing in the covenant which in the least interferes with or impairs the right of Congress to declare war according to its own independent judgment.
"In his speech in Washington on Jackson Day Mr. Bryan said: 'If we do not intend to impair the right of Congress to decide the question of peace or war when the time for action arrives, how can we insist upon a moral obligation to go to war which can have no force or value except as it does indirectly influence the Congress?'"

Four Democratic Bosses.
"It is difficult for their candidate, now being backed and forth from the sinister plights of the socialist of the Democratic party to the future presence of its quarter of homes, to make his decision. However, it matters not to us. Our sole requirement and hope is that there shall be no restriction. The referendum is going to be more than solemn, it is going to be the most comprehensive ever known, and before ended it will have

HARRIMAN SAYS IN DEFENSE, SHIP PLANS U. S. AID

Shows Hamburg-American 20-Year Contract to Prove Benefits.
BENSON IS BEHIND HIM
Admiral Asserts Opposition Is From Rivals Beaten in Trade Race.
BUSINESS PARCELLED OUT

Kermit Roosevelt Makes Another Futile Plea to Shipping Board Chairman.

Famine Threatens Population and Disorders Reported Among Troops.

OUTBREAKS IN SIBERIA
Success of Wrangel in South Causes Consternation in Soviet Headquarters.

LONDON, Oct. 5.—Further reports of disorganization and revolt in Soviet Russia have been secured by Reuters' News Agency from "a reliable person who has just crossed the frontier into Finland."
Reuters' informant says the Red army is in a state of disorganization and that the harvest is exceptionally bad. Revolts have broken out in Siberia at Tombov and near Samara. There is great unrest among the workmen.
Despatches from Helsinki say 200,000 persons have fled from Petrograd to escape threatened starvation. The Bolsheviks are very anxious about Gen. Wrangel's successes in the south, and the latest call of Leon Trotsky, the Bolshevik Minister of War, is for "the liquidation of the southern front before winter."

The Bolsheviks, says the advance, realize that this winter will be the hardest. They have the opinion that it is doubtful whether it will pass calmly. Their leaders are very anxious about the whole situation.

PARIS, Oct. 5.—In comment to-day upon the successes of the Poles and General Wrangel against the Russian Soviet troops, the opinion was expressed by the French Foreign Office that the situation of the Soviet Government had never been so precarious as it was at present.
The Soviet authorities, it was declared, have never been as ready as now to make concessions, as was shown by the present eagerness to fulfill the agreement entered into at Copenhagen between the French Government and the Moscow Government for the repatriation of French citizens from Russia. Previously great reluctance had been displayed by the Moscow officials to carry out the undertaking. The French Government, while the Polish drive was at the height of its success, however, informed Moscow that it would take such measures as it deemed necessary if all French subjects were not permitted to leave Russia before October. Several hundred of these reached Paris last night on a special train and 500 more crossed the Polish frontier yesterday.

GEN. WRANGEL'S TROOPS
TAKE TWO TRAINS
Makno's Capture of Kharkov Demoralizes Reds.

By the Associated Press.
CONSTANTINOPLE, Oct. 5.—It is reported from Sebastopol that the troops of General Wrangel's South Russian Government, developing their offensive against the Russian Soviet forces, have captured Petrovsk and Novopetrovsk, on the coast of the Sea of Azov. The reports say General Wrangel's forces captured more than 4,000 prisoners, 12 cannons and 130 machine guns.
Following the capture of Wrangel's forces and the armies led by General Semenov, the Russian Soviet forces, flying raid on Kharkov, which resulted in the capture of that city, has contributed to the confusion of the Soviet army in Southern Russia, the position of which along the Dnieper River has become more critical.

VIENNA, Oct. 4 (delayed).—Groups of officers of the General Wrangel, anti-Bolshevik leader in South Russia, are arriving in Vienna for the purpose, it is understood, of arranging for the delivery of Italian winter outfits to General Wrangel and endeavoring to secure arms and munitions. A weekly newspaper devoted to General Wrangel's interests now is being published here.
By the Associated Press.
HARRISBURG, Oct. 5.—Gen. Lukich, formerly an officer of Gen. Kolchak's forces and at present in command of a remnant of Kolchak's troops, of the old Russian Government, and Gen. Semenov, the anti-Bolshevik Cossack leader in Siberia, have offered aid to Gen. Wrangel. Semenov's chief lieutenant is reported to be starting a raid on Ukraine from Dnypr, Transbaltia, hoping to compel the Russian Soviet to divert troops from the Polish front.

World's Largest Ship Burned at Hamburg

BERLIN, Oct. 5.—The steamship Bismarck, the world's largest vessel, has been burned at Hamburg, says a despatch to the Zweifelblatt. The gross tonnage of the Bismarck was to have been 50,000, as against 54,282 of the Vaterland, now the Leviathan, the next largest steamer. The Bismarck was built at the yards of Blohm & Voess at Hamburg and would have been delivered to the Allies under the terms of the peace treaty.
In July last it was reported that the Bismarck soon would be ready to be sent to Belfast and placed in the Harland & Wolff shipyards to be finished and transferred to the White Star line. The vessel was 912 feet long. Advertisements appearing in London newspapers of the offer for sale of ex-enemy steamships include the Bismarck.

ONE SIDED 'DUEL' AMUSES LONDON

Sir Claude C. de Crespigny, 73, Fails to Force Fight With Lord Kenyon, 53.

CHALLENGING 20 YEARS

Men Are Cousins and Younger Calls Elder's Belligerency 'Deliciously Absurd.'

Special Cable Despatch to THE HERALD.
Copyright, 1920, by THE SUN-HERALD CORPORATION.
LONDON, Oct. 5.—An echo of olden times stirred London to-day, but it was stirred mostly with amusement. A challenge to a duel to the death—"anywhere, anyhow and with any kind of weapons"—was issued by Sir Claude Champion de Crespigny, 73 years old, to his cousin, Lord Kenyon, aged 57. One could almost hear the clanking of the armor of mailed knights between the bellicose Lords, Sir Claude, who is of Norman blood, demanding that his honor be satisfied.
But Lord Kenyon is more modern. He is an intelligent man of affairs and simply regards the challenge as "deliciously absurd."

Sensation Prompted by Clegg.
From Alfred H. Clegg, vice-president of the Kerr Steamship Company, who was intimately concerned in the early conferences between the Harriman Corporation and the Hamburg-American Line, came promises that evidence of a sensational nature would soon be laid before the United States Treasury Department and Shipping Board officials in connection with his charges that German shipping interests are preparing to use the United States for the furthering of Germany's own maritime and commercial prestige and power.

Full Contract, as given up by Mr. Kenyon, is a statement made by Sir Claude about him during the South African War, said Sir Claude.

Lord Kenyon said that a "little quarrel" started between the two cousins, but that it was a "deliciously absurd" thing for a gentleman to do is to fight.

For twenty years, at intervals, this kind of a challenge has been made and always ignored," he said. "In the twentieth century we no longer think of duels connected with anything so ridiculously inappropriate as a difference over property."
It is true that two seconds have been named on his behalf, but really it was suggested that the duel was not a matter to deal with seriously. At one time or another I suppose Sir Claude has challenged the whole country.

Recalls the Days of Chivalry.
Sir Claude is tall and straight and looks to be about 50 years old and a regular Don Quixote. He talks as if he thinks it is all wrong that the world should move on from those glorious days of old in the atmosphere of which he lives. So much is his home and his furniture a part of bygone days that the rattle of the promise taxicabs in the streets outside sounded a discordant note.

Lord Kenyon is quite the reverse. Formerly he was a soldier, but he now is a vigorous man of business, a keen sportsman and possesses a powerful physique. Perhaps it is not out of place to say that he is smilingly tolerant when he says:
"I do not expect to have any sleepless nights."

ITALIAN CREWS QUIT AT BUENOS AIRES

Protest Against Arrest of Seamen at Genoa.

BUENOS AIRES, Oct. 5.—Crews of all the Italian steamships in the port of Buenos Aires have decided to quit the city as a protest against the arrest of the Italian Government recently in arresting seamen because of the seizure by them of the Russian vessel Rodosta, anchored at Genoa during the labor troubles, and as an expression of the solidarity of the seamen.
The seamen, in sympathy with the Italian crews, have decided to suspend all loading and unloading of the Italian vessels until the seamen return.

LAUDS GERMAN ARMY'S AIR AND GUN SERVICES

Staff Chief Hopes to See Them Revived Again.

ELECTION SUITS TRANSFERRED TO DOGE LAW

New York City Landlords File Cases in Western Part of State.

ROBITZEK REVEALS IT

Tenants Here Forced to Go to Niagara or Greene County, He Says.

JUSTICES HOLD PARLEY

Decide to Stand Firm on Chief's Ruling Against Summary Disposition.

Justice Harry Robitzek at a meeting of the Board of Municipal Justices yesterday afternoon revealed that several hundred actions against tenants of Harlem and The Bronx had been started in the Supreme Courts of Greene and Niagara counties by landlords who, finding their hands tied by the order of Chief Justice Aaron S. Levy that no more eviction warrants should be issued in this city under summary proceedings, had gone to distant counties in the State in an attempt to cause as much trouble as possible.
The amount at stake in any suit brought in the Supreme Courts in other counties must be in excess of $50. To defend these actions, tenants, many of them poor families, must go to the county where the proceedings are pending, and the loss in railroad fare and time would often amount to more than even exorbitant increases in rent.

Justice Robitzek said that several corporations, by the policy of summary proceedings, had made a bad time for the poor families, many of them poor families, must go to the county where the proceedings are pending, and the loss in railroad fare and time would often amount to more than even exorbitant increases in rent.
Justice Robitzek said that several corporations, by the policy of summary proceedings, had made a bad time for the poor families, many of them poor families, must go to the county where the proceedings are pending, and the loss in railroad fare and time would often amount to more than even exorbitant increases in rent.

Justice Robitzek said that several corporations, by the policy of summary proceedings, had made a bad time for the poor families, many of them poor families, must go to the county where the proceedings are pending, and the loss in railroad fare and time would often amount to more than even exorbitant increases in rent.

Justice Robitzek said that several corporations, by the policy of summary proceedings, had made a bad time for the poor families, many of them poor families, must go to the county where the proceedings are pending, and the loss in railroad fare and time would often amount to more than even exorbitant increases in rent.

Justice Robitzek said that several corporations, by the policy of summary proceedings, had made a bad time for the poor families, many of them poor families, must go to the county where the proceedings are pending, and the loss in railroad fare and time would often amount to more than even exorbitant increases in rent.

Justice Robitzek said that several corporations, by the policy of summary proceedings, had made a bad time for the poor families, many of them poor families, must go to the county where the proceedings are pending, and the loss in railroad fare and time would often amount to more than even exorbitant increases in rent.

Justice Robitzek said that several corporations, by the policy of summary proceedings, had made a bad time for the poor families, many of them poor families, must go to the county where the proceedings are pending, and the loss in railroad fare and time would often amount to more than even exorbitant increases in rent.

Justice Robitzek said that several corporations, by the policy of summary proceedings, had made a bad time for the poor families, many of them poor families, must go to the county where the proceedings are pending, and the loss in railroad fare and time would often amount to more than even exorbitant increases in rent.

Justice Robitzek said that several corporations, by the policy of summary proceedings, had made a bad time for the poor families, many of them poor families, must go to the county where the proceedings are pending, and the loss in railroad fare and time would often amount to more than even exorbitant increases in rent.

Justice Robitzek said that several corporations, by the policy of summary proceedings, had made a bad time for the poor families, many of them poor families, must go to the county where the proceedings are pending, and the loss in railroad fare and time would often amount to more than even exorbitant increases in rent.

Justice Robitzek said that several corporations, by the policy of summary proceedings, had made a bad time for the poor families, many of them poor families, must go to the county where the proceedings are pending, and the loss in railroad fare and time would often amount to more than even exorbitant increases in rent.

Justice Robitzek said that several corporations, by the policy of summary proceedings, had made a bad time for the poor families, many of them poor families, must go to the county where the proceedings are pending, and the loss in railroad fare and time would often amount to more than even exorbitant increases in rent.

Justice Robitzek said that several corporations, by the policy of summary proceedings, had made a bad time for the poor families, many of them poor families, must go to the county where the proceedings are pending, and the loss in railroad fare and time would often amount to more than even exorbitant increases in rent.

Justice Robitzek said that several corporations, by the policy of summary proceedings, had made a bad time for the poor families, many of them poor families, must go to the county where the proceedings are pending, and the loss in railroad fare and time would often amount to more than even exorbitant increases in rent.

Justice Robitzek said that several corporations, by the policy of summary proceedings, had made a bad time for the poor families, many of them poor families, must go to the county where the proceedings are pending, and the loss in railroad fare and time would often amount to more than even exorbitant increases in rent.

INDIANS WIN 3 TO 1; ARE HELPED BY WIND; ATTELL WILL SQUEAL

NICK THE GREEK WON $100,000

Master Mind Vainly Tried to Rob Him in Framed Craps Game.

SWANN TO GET DETAILS

Fighter and Gamblers Are Due to Tell of Series "Fixing" To-day.

Abe Attell, gambler and former featherweight champion; Nick the Greek, known along the Rialto as the fastest crap shooter in the United States, and two other gamblers, whose names District Attorney Swann would not disclose, are expected to appear in the District Attorney's office to-day to tell what they know about the "fixing" of last year's world's series.

It was announced simultaneously that the investigation of crooked baseball in New York will be turned over to Assistant District Attorney James E. Smith, whose name for years has been a terror to gamblers. Alexander I. Rorke, the assistant who originally was assigned to the case, was relieved. Judge Swann said, because of the pressure of other duties.

As the inquiry proceeds it is evident that the District Attorney's office is not only convinced that there has been a master mind which directed the negotiations that resulted in members of the Chicago White Sox throwing the series to Cincinnati, but suspects that still higher up is a gambling genius who was the actual brains of the whole conspiracy. It is about this super-master mind that Mr. Smith hopes to learn to-day.

Where a good slice of the money lost on the White Sox went was revealed yesterday. According to the story, Nick the Greek, who was down and out after a disastrous season at Saratoga a year ago, went to the master mind for help.

The "fixing" series was about to start. Nick was staked to $25,000 and told to go to Chicago and clean up on the Cincinnati Reds. He did, pyramiding his bets until he had won $100,000. True to his agreement, Nick returned to New York and split his winnings fifty-fifty.

This did not satisfy the master mind and he decided that Nick the Greek must be "framed" and the other $50,000 taken away from him. A craps game was arranged, not in the master mind's own gambling establishment, but in a small hotel in the Forties.

The frameup failed, however. When the game broke up at 2 o'clock in the morning Nick had not won his original $50,000, but $45,000 more which he had taken away from the master mind and his gang. It was then decided to lay for Nick and rob him of the money. When he left the hotel five "strong arm" men followed him, waiting for a chance to get his $95,000.

Nick suspected he was being double-crossed and instead of going home walked around the corner to Forty-second street and Broadway, where he ranged himself alongside the policeman on duty. He stuck to the cop like a shadow, following him around on the post and never giving the gang a chance to get him. He stayed with the policeman from 2 o'clock until 5 A. M. the following day, when he finally escaped.

Broker Lost $100,000.
Another story was told of the master mind's gambling adventures. A wealthy stock broker lost in one or more sittings about $100,000 in his gambling house in New York. Although this broker thought he was a "big shot" and was a sure thing, he offered a sure thing on the stock market the next day.

A certain stock was going up 20 points, he said. The master mind, going up, the bottom fell out of the stock, of which the broker was comfortably short, and the gambler lost $250,000.

The personnel of the party in the lobby of the Hotel Astor, where Arnold Rothstein is reported to have turned down a man who got in on the world's series frame up, was disclosed yesterday by Val O'Farrell, a private detective, who was in the lobby at the time.

O'Farrell Gives Names.
"Beside myself at that meeting," O'Farrell said, "there were Rothstein and three other men. I know them and none of them was a Jew, as it was supposed. Those who approached Rothstein were a Long Island gambler, who is known as 'Archie' up and down Broadway, Bonnie Knuff, a former boxer, and a man with a bulldog jaw, whom I did not know. I've since heard his name is Bill Burns, but I am not sure of this. I am positive there was no Jew present."

District Attorney Swann said there was nothing new yesterday, but he expects important developments to-day.
Mr. McGee of the firm of Fallon and McGee, attorneys for Abe Attell, issued a statement in which he said Fallon had denied by telephone from Connecticut a statement attributed to him in the newspapers about the fixing of the world's series.

The only statement Mr. Fallon admitted making was that Attell is in town and will be produced if subpoenaed. He said Attell would welcome an opportunity to clear himself in the eyes of the public.

IN FIGHTING THEM?
Is your power of resistance up to normal? Is not your body built to fight? Is not your mind built to think? Is not your spirit built to conquer? Is not your soul built to save? Is not your life built to live? Is not your death built to die? Is not your resurrection built to rise? Is not your kingdom built to reign? Is not your glory built to shine? Is not your power built to rule? Is not your wisdom built to guide? Is not your love built to give? Is not your mercy built to pardon? Is not your grace built to cleanse? Is not your peace built to comfort? Is not your joy built to cheer? Is not your hope built to sustain? Is not your faith built to believe? Is not your courage built to brave? Is not your strength built to endure? Is not your patience built to wait? Is not your gentleness built to soothe? Is not your kindness built to bless? Is not your goodness built to prosper? Is not your meekness built to humble? Is not your self-control built to master? Is not your purity built to glorify? Is not your holiness built to sanctify? Is not your righteousness built to justify? Is not your truth built to reveal? Is not your life built to save? Is not your death built to die? Is not your resurrection built to rise? Is not your kingdom built to reign? Is not your glory built to shine? Is not your power built to rule? Is not your wisdom built to guide? Is not your love built to give? Is not your mercy built to pardon? Is not your grace built to cleanse? Is not your peace built to comfort? Is not your joy built to cheer? Is not your hope built to sustain? Is not your faith built to believe? Is not your courage built to brave? Is not your strength built to endure? Is not your patience built to wait? Is not your gentleness built to soothe? Is not your kindness built to bless? Is not your goodness built to prosper? Is not your meekness built to humble? Is not your self-control built to master? Is not your purity built to glorify? Is not your holiness built to sanctify? Is not your righteousness built to justify? Is not your truth built to reveal? Is not your life built to save? Is not your death built to die? Is not your resurrection built to rise? Is not your kingdom built to reign? Is not your glory built to shine? Is not your power built to rule? Is not your wisdom built to guide? Is not your love built to give? Is not your mercy built to pardon? Is not your grace built to cleanse? Is not your peace built to comfort? Is not your joy built to cheer? Is not your hope built to sustain? Is not your faith built to believe? Is not your courage built to brave? Is not your strength built to endure? Is not your patience built to wait? Is not your gentleness built to soothe? Is not your kindness built to bless? Is not your goodness built to prosper? Is not your meekness built to humble? Is not your self-control built to master? Is not your purity built to glorify? Is not your holiness built to sanctify? Is not your righteousness built to justify? Is not your truth built to reveal? Is not your life built to save? Is not your death built to die? Is not your resurrection built to rise? Is not your kingdom built to reign? Is not your glory built to shine? Is not your power built to rule? Is not your wisdom built to guide? Is not your love built to give? Is not your mercy built to pardon? Is not your grace built to cleanse? Is not your peace built to comfort? Is not your joy built to cheer? Is not your hope built to sustain? Is not your faith built to believe? Is not your courage built to brave? Is not your strength built to endure? Is not your patience built to wait? Is not your gentleness built to soothe? Is not your kindness built to bless? Is not your goodness built to prosper? Is not your meekness built to humble? Is not your self-control built to master? Is not your purity built to glorify? Is not your holiness built to sanctify? Is not your righteousness built to justify? Is not your truth built to reveal? Is not your life built to save? Is not your death built to die? Is not your resurrection built to rise? Is not your kingdom built to reign? Is not your glory built to shine? Is not your power built to rule? Is not your wisdom built to guide? Is not your love built to give? Is not your mercy built to pardon? Is not your grace built to cleanse? Is not your peace built to comfort? Is not your joy built to cheer? Is not your hope built to sustain? Is not your faith built to believe? Is not your courage built to brave? Is not your strength built to endure? Is not your patience built to wait? Is not your gentleness built to soothe? Is not your kindness built to bless? Is not your goodness built to prosper? Is not your meekness built to humble? Is not your self-control built to master? Is not your purity built to glorify? Is not your holiness built to sanctify? Is not your righteousness built to justify? Is not your truth built to reveal? Is not your life built to save? Is not your death built to die? Is not your resurrection built to rise? Is not your kingdom built to reign? Is not your glory built to shine? Is not your power built to rule? Is not your wisdom built to guide? Is not your love built to give? Is not your mercy built to pardon? Is not your grace built to cleanse? Is not your peace built to comfort? Is not your joy built to cheer? Is not your hope built to sustain? Is not your faith built to believe? Is not your courage built to brave? Is not your strength built to endure? Is not your patience built to wait? Is not your gentleness built to soothe? Is not your kindness built to bless? Is not your goodness built to prosper? Is not your meekness built to humble? Is not your self-control built to master? Is not your purity built to glorify? Is not your holiness built to sanctify? Is not your righteousness built to justify? Is not your truth built to reveal? Is not your life built to save? Is not your death built to die? Is not your resurrection built to rise? Is not your kingdom built to reign? Is not your glory built to shine? Is not your power built to rule? Is not your wisdom built to guide? Is not your love built to give? Is not your mercy built to pardon? Is not your grace built to cleanse? Is not your peace built to comfort? Is not your joy built to cheer? Is not your hope built to sustain? Is not your faith built to believe? Is not your courage built to brave? Is not your strength built to endure? Is not your patience built to wait? Is not your gentleness built to soothe? Is not your kindness built to bless? Is not your goodness built to prosper? Is not your meekness built to humble? Is not your self-control built to master? Is not your purity built to glorify? Is not your holiness built to sanctify? Is not your righteousness built to justify? Is not your truth built to reveal? Is not your life built to save? Is not your death built to die? Is not your resurrection built to rise? Is not your kingdom built to reign? Is not your glory built to shine? Is not your power built to rule? Is not your wisdom built to guide? Is not your love built to give? Is not your mercy built to pardon? Is not your grace built to cleanse? Is not your peace built to comfort? Is not your joy built to cheer? Is not your hope built to sustain? Is not your faith built to believe? Is not your courage built to brave? Is not your strength built to endure? Is not your patience built to wait? Is not your gentleness built to soothe? Is not your kindness built to bless? Is not your goodness built to prosper? Is not your meekness built to humble? Is not your self-control built to master? Is not your purity built to glorify? Is not your holiness built to sanctify? Is not your righteousness built to justify? Is not your truth built to reveal? Is not your life built to save? Is not your death built to die? Is not your resurrection built to rise? Is not your kingdom built to reign? Is not your glory built to shine? Is not your power built to rule? Is not your wisdom built to guide? Is not your love built to give? Is not your mercy built to pardon? Is not your grace built to cleanse? Is not your peace built to comfort? Is not your joy built to cheer? Is not your hope built to sustain? Is not your faith built to believe? Is not your courage built to brave? Is not your strength built to endure? Is not your patience built to wait? Is not your gentleness built to soothe? Is not your kindness built to bless? Is not your goodness built to prosper? Is not your meekness built to humble? Is not your self-control built to master? Is not your purity built to glorify? Is not your holiness built to sanctify? Is not your righteousness built to justify? Is not your truth built to reveal? Is not your life built to save? Is not your death built to die? Is not your resurrection built to rise? Is not your kingdom built to reign? Is not your glory built to shine? Is not your power built to rule? Is not your wisdom built to guide? Is not your love built to give? Is not your mercy built to pardon? Is not your grace built to cleanse? Is not your peace built to comfort? Is not your joy built to cheer? Is not your hope built to sustain? Is not your faith built to believe? Is not your courage built to brave? Is not your strength built to endure? Is not your patience built to wait? Is not your gentleness built to soothe? Is not your kindness built to bless? Is not your goodness built to prosper? Is not your meekness built to humble? Is not your self-control built to master? Is not your purity built to glorify? Is not your holiness built to sanctify? Is not your righteousness built to justify? Is not your truth built to reveal? Is not your life built to save? Is not your death built to die? Is not your resurrection built to rise? Is not your kingdom built to reign? Is not your glory built to shine? Is not your power built to rule? Is not your wisdom built to guide? Is not your love built to give? Is not your mercy built to pardon? Is not your grace built to cleanse? Is not your peace built to comfort? Is not your joy built to cheer? Is not your hope built to sustain? Is not your faith built to believe? Is not your courage built to brave? Is not your strength built to endure? Is not your patience built to wait? Is not your gentleness built to soothe? Is not your kindness built to bless? Is not your goodness built to prosper? Is not your meekness built to humble? Is not your self-control built to master? Is not your purity built to glorify? Is not your holiness built to sanctify? Is not your righteousness built to justify? Is not your truth built to reveal? Is not your life built to save? Is not your death built to die? Is not your resurrection built to rise? Is not your kingdom built to reign? Is not your glory built to shine? Is not your power built to rule? Is not your wisdom built to guide? Is not your love built to give? Is not your mercy built to pardon? Is not your grace built to cleanse? Is not your peace built to comfort? Is not your joy built to cheer? Is not your hope built to sustain? Is not your faith built to believe? Is not your courage built to brave? Is not your strength built to endure? Is not your patience built to wait? Is not your gentleness built to soothe? Is not your kindness built to bless? Is not your goodness built to prosper? Is not your meekness built to humble? Is not your self-control built to master? Is not your purity built to glorify? Is not your holiness built to sanctify? Is not your righteousness built to justify? Is not your truth built to reveal? Is not your life built to save? Is not your death built to die? Is not your resurrection built to rise? Is not your kingdom built to reign? Is not your glory built to shine? Is not your power built to rule? Is not your wisdom built to guide? Is not your love built to give? Is not your mercy built to pardon? Is not your grace built to cleanse? Is not your peace built to comfort? Is not your joy built to cheer? Is not your hope built to sustain? Is not your faith built to believe? Is not your courage built to brave? Is not your strength built to endure? Is not your patience built to wait? Is not your gentleness built to soothe? Is not your kindness built to bless? Is not your goodness built to prosper? Is not your meekness built to humble? Is not your self-control built to master? Is not your purity built to glorify? Is not your holiness built to sanctify? Is not your righteousness built to justify? Is not your truth built to reveal? Is not your life built to save? Is not your death built to die? Is not your resurrection built to rise? Is not your kingdom built to reign? Is not your glory built to shine? Is not your power built to rule? Is not your wisdom built to guide? Is not your love built to give? Is not your mercy built to pardon? Is not your grace built to cleanse? Is not your peace built to comfort? Is not your joy built to cheer? Is not your hope built to sustain? Is not your faith built to believe? Is not your courage built to brave? Is not your strength built to endure? Is not your patience built to wait? Is not your gentleness built to soothe? Is not your kindness built to bless? Is not your goodness built to prosper? Is not your meekness built to humble? Is not your self-control built to master? Is not your purity built to glorify? Is not your holiness built to sanctify? Is not your righteousness built to justify? Is not your truth built to reveal? Is not your life built to save? Is not your death built to die? Is not your resurrection built to rise? Is not your kingdom built to reign? Is not your glory built to shine? Is not your power built to rule? Is not your wisdom built to guide? Is not your love built to give? Is not your mercy built to pardon? Is not your grace built to cleanse? Is not your peace built to comfort? Is not your joy built to cheer? Is not your hope built to sustain? Is not your faith built to believe? Is not your courage built to brave? Is not your strength built to endure? Is not your patience built to wait? Is not your gentleness built to soothe? Is not your kindness built to bless? Is not your goodness built to prosper? Is not your meekness built to humble? Is not your self-control built to master? Is not your purity built to glorify? Is not your holiness built to sanctify? Is not your righteousness built to justify? Is not your truth built to reveal? Is not your life built to save? Is not your death built to die? Is not your resurrection built to rise? Is not your kingdom built to reign? Is not your glory built to shine? Is not your power built to rule? Is not your wisdom built to guide? Is not your love built to give? Is not your mercy built to pardon? Is not your grace built to cleanse? Is not your peace built to comfort? Is not your joy built to cheer? Is not your hope built to sustain? Is not your faith built to believe? Is not your courage built to brave? Is not your strength built to endure? Is not your patience built to wait? Is not your gentleness built to soothe? Is not your kindness built to bless? Is not your goodness built to prosper? Is not your meekness built to humble? Is not your self-control built to master? Is not your purity built to glorify? Is not your holiness built to sanctify? Is not your righteousness built to justify? Is not your truth built to reveal? Is not your life built to save? Is not your death built to die? Is not your resurrection built to rise? Is not your kingdom built to reign? Is not your glory built to shine? Is not your power built to rule? Is not your wisdom built to guide? Is not your love built to give? Is not your mercy built to pardon? Is not your grace built to cleanse? Is not your peace built to comfort? Is not your joy built to cheer? Is not your hope built to sustain? Is not your faith built to believe? Is not your courage built to brave? Is not your strength built to endure? Is not your patience built to wait? Is not your gentleness built to soothe? Is not your kindness built to bless? Is not your goodness built to prosper? Is not your meekness built to humble? Is not your self-control built to master? Is not your purity built to glorify? Is not your holiness built to sanctify? Is not your righteousness built to justify? Is not your truth built to reveal? Is not your life built to save? Is not your death built to die? Is not your resurrection built to rise? Is not your kingdom built to reign? Is not your glory built to shine? Is not your power built to rule? Is not your wisdom built to guide? Is not your love built to give? Is not your mercy built to pardon? Is not your grace built to cleanse? Is not your peace built to comfort? Is not your joy built to cheer? Is not your hope built to sustain? Is not your faith built to believe? Is not your courage built to brave? Is not your strength built to endure? Is not your patience built to wait? Is not your gentleness built to soothe? Is not your kindness built to bless? Is not your goodness built to prosper? Is not your meekness built to humble? Is not your self-control built to master? Is not your purity built to glorify? Is not your holiness built to sanctify? Is not your righteousness built to justify? Is not your truth built to reveal? Is not your life built to save? Is not your death built to die? Is not your resurrection built to rise? Is not your kingdom built to reign? Is not your glory built to shine? Is not your power built to rule? Is not your wisdom built to guide? Is not your love built to give? Is not your mercy built to pardon? Is not your grace built to cleanse? Is not your peace built to comfort? Is not your joy built to cheer? Is not your hope built to sustain? Is not your faith built to believe? Is not your courage built to brave? Is not your strength built to endure? Is not your patience built to wait? Is not your gentleness built to soothe? Is not your kindness built to bless? Is not your goodness built to prosper? Is not your meekness built to humble? Is not your self-control built to master? Is not your purity built to glorify? Is not your holiness built to sanctify? Is not your righteousness built to justify? Is not your truth built to reveal? Is not your life built to save? Is not your death built to die? Is not your resurrection built to rise? Is not your kingdom built to reign? Is not your glory built to shine? Is not your power built to rule? Is not your wisdom built to guide? Is not your love built to give? Is not your mercy built to pardon? Is not your grace built to cleanse? Is not your peace built to comfort? Is not your joy built to cheer? Is not your hope built to sustain? Is not your faith built to believe? Is not your courage built to brave? Is not your strength built to endure? Is not your patience built to wait? Is not your gentleness built to soothe? Is not your kindness built to bless? Is not your goodness built to prosper? Is not your meekness built to humble? Is not your self-control built to master? Is not your purity built to glorify? Is not your holiness built to sanctify? Is not your righteousness built to justify? Is not your truth built to reveal? Is not your life built to save? Is not your death built to die? Is not your resurrection built to rise? Is not your kingdom built to reign? Is not your glory built to shine? Is not your power built to rule? Is not your wisdom built to guide? Is not your love built to give? Is not your mercy built to pardon? Is not your grace built to cleanse? Is not your peace built to comfort? Is not your joy built to cheer? Is not your hope built to sustain? Is not your faith built to believe? Is not your courage built to brave? Is not your strength built to endure? Is not your patience built to wait? Is not your gentleness built to soothe? Is not your kindness built to bless? Is not your goodness built to prosper? Is not your meekness built to humble? Is not your self-control built to master? Is not your purity built to glorify? Is not your holiness built to sanctify? Is not your righteousness built to justify? Is not your